OPENING SENTENCES

BCP, 323

GLORY BE TO GOD ON HIGH

BCP, 324

Said by all

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Almighty God, who hast given thy only Son to be unto us both a sacrifice for sin and also an example of godly life: Give us grace that we may always most thankfully receive that his inestimable benefit, and also daily endeavor ourselves to follow the blessed steps of his most holy life; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

A COLLECT FOR TRINITY'S FUTURE

Almighty God,

in your love for us you have blessed Trinity Church abundantly.

We glorify you and give you thanks for all the gifts you have given us...

Our faith

Our lives

Our loved ones

For the wisdom and love of our founders whose sacrifices in time, talent and treasure, continue to bless our parish. And for the generosity of all those who built up this parish community during their own lives and passed it along for us to steward in our time.

Most of all, we thank you for your only begotten Son, Jesus Christ whose sacrifice on the cross is made present to us in the Eucharist and through our lives in ministry with one another.

Pour out your Spirit upon us. Give us hearts of humility, gratitude and faithful generosity out of the good things you have given us.

Help us to live as disciples, modeling our lives after Christ's own example of self-emptying love.

We humbly ask you to send your Spirit upon Trinity Church and the Newport community during this crucial time as we campaign to build upon the strong foundations laid throughout our history by our forebears in faith.

We offer our prayers, joys, works, and treasures to you, uniting them to their sacrifice and that of our Lord Jesus Christ. May our gifts of gratitude glorify you, our namesake the Trinity, one God, who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen.

The Word of God

The people are seated for the Lessons and the Psalm.

FIRST LESSON

1 KINGS 2:10-12; 3:3-14

David slept with his ancestors, and was buried in the city of David. The time that David reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David; and his kingdom was firmly established.

Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of his father David; only, he sacrificed and offered incense at the high places. The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the principal high place; Solomon used to offer a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. At Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask what I should give you." And Solomon said, "You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant my father David, because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward you; and you have kept for him this great and steadfast love, and have given him a son to sit on his throne today. And now, O Lord my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David, although I am only a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. And your servant is in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a great people, so numerous they cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant therefore an understanding mind to govern your people, able to discern between good and evil; for who can govern this your great people?"

It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. God said to him, "Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches, or for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, I now do according to your word. Indeed I give you a wise and discerning mind; no one like you has been before you and no one like you shall arise after you. I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honor all your life; no other king shall compare with you. If you will walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your life."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 111

The Psalm is read by the people as directed by the Lector.

1 Hallelujah!

I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, *
in the assembly of the upright, in the congregation.

2 Great are the deeds of the Lord! *
they are studied by all who delight in them.

3 His work is full of majesty and splendor, *
and his righteousness endures for ever.

4 He makes his marvelous works to be remembered; *
the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

5 He gives food to those who fear him; *
he is ever mindful of his covenant.

6 He has shown his people the power of his works *
in giving them the lands of the nations.

7 The works of his hands are faithfulness and justice; *
all his commandments are sure.

8 They stand fast for ever and ever, *
because they are done in truth and equity.

9 He sent redemption to his people;
he commanded his covenant for ever; *
holy and awesome is his Name.

10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; *
those who act accordingly have a good understanding;
his praise endures for ever.

SECOND LESSON

EPHESIANS 5:15-20

Be careful then how you live, not as unwise people but as wise, making the most of the time, because the days are evil. So do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. Do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit, as you sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, singing and making melody to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks to God the Father at all times and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The people stand for the reading of the Gospel.

THE GOSPEL	JOHN 6:51-58
------------	--------------

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.”

The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?” So Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever.”

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to thee, O Christ.

But First!

Join us after the 10AM service for a blessing and to welcome back Margaret's memorial to Trinity Church Yard.

On May 29, 1757, at the age of 3 yrs, 6 mos & 19 days, Margaret Malbone, daughter of Francis and Margaret Malbone, passed away. Her gravestone, attributed to William Stevens of The John Stevens Shop, subsequently became part of a traveling stone carving exhibit and has only recently been returned, thanks to the efforts of Lew Keen, Chairman of Newport's Historic Cemetery Advisory Commission.

A Salute to Major Donors

As you know, we will have a plaque honoring major donors, those who have given $5,000 or more to the capital campaign, in our new building. In the meantime, we'd like to take the opportunity to recognize them now.

Pastoral Care Corner

Please remember in your prayers this week:

Lewis Smith, Jeanne Nassa, Anita Beaumont, George and Sandra V., Karen A., Ted Gatchel, Jackie, Susan, Blakeley Andersen, Peter Chabot, Dennis, Betsy and Charlie Jauss, Sid Gorham, Todd, Fran, Zack, Meryl Moore, Pat Lengyel, Roger King, Charlotte Johnson, Helen, Janie Raffa, Alex; and in our Diocesan Cycle of Prayer, we join the Bishop today in praying for St. Mary's, East Providence; St. Mary's, Portsmouth; and St. Mary's Home for Children.

During the regular Wednesday Noon Eucharist we remember in prayer the dear departed of this parish on the anniversary of their passing into eternal life. This week's Eucharist is offered with special intentions for the repose of the soul of The Hon. Paul Taylor, Tore Raffa, Thomas David Cullen, Arva Bunting, Cheryl St. George, and Diana Duncan Hepting.

Trinity Loving Care (TLC), is the Pastoral Care ministry of this parish. Reaching out with visits, meals, cards, and phone calls; and providing rides and errands, TLC extends the love of Christ to those in need. If you are aware of a need – for yourself or for someone else – please contact one of the TLC Monthly Coordinators.
