OPENING ACCLAMATION

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR PURITY

BCP, 355

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLORIA: S-279

Gerald Near

Sung by all

*Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.*

*Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.*

*Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world;
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father;
receive our prayer.*

*For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.*

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR TRINITY'S FUTURE

Almighty God,

in your love for us you have blessed Trinity Church abundantly.

We glorify you and give you thanks for all the gifts you have given us...

Our faith

Our lives

Our loved ones

For the wisdom and love of our founders whose sacrifices in time, talent, and treasure, continue to bless our parish. And for the generosity of all those who built up this parish community during their own lives and passed it along for us to steward in our time.

Most of all, we thank you for your only begotten Son, Jesus Christ whose sacrifice on the cross is made present to us in the Eucharist and through our lives in ministry with one another.

Pour out your Spirit upon us. Give us hearts of humility, gratitude, and faithful generosity out of the good things you have given us.

Help us to live as disciples, modeling our lives after Christ's own example of self-emptying love.

We humbly ask you to send your Spirit upon Trinity Church and the Newport community during this crucial time as we campaign to build upon the strong foundations laid throughout our history by our forebears in faith.

We offer our prayers, joys, works, and treasures to you, uniting them to their sacrifice and that of our Lord Jesus Christ. May our gifts of gratitude glorify you, our namesake the Trinity, one God, who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen.

The Word of God

The people are seated for the Lessons and the Psalm.

FIRST LESSON

1 SAMUEL 1:4-20

On the day when Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters; but to Hannah he gave a double portion, because he loved her, though the Lord had closed her womb. Her rival used to provoke her severely, to irritate her, because the Lord had closed her womb. So it went on year by year; as often as she went up to the house of the Lord, she used to provoke her. Therefore Hannah wept and would not eat. Her husband Elkanah said to her, “Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? Why is your heart sad? Am I not more to you than ten sons?”

After they had eaten and drunk at Shiloh, Hannah rose and presented herself before the Lord. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the Lord. She was deeply distressed and prayed to the Lord, and wept bitterly. She made this vow: “O Lord of hosts, if only you will look on the misery of your servant, and remember me, and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a male child, then I will set him before you as a nazirite until the day of his death. He shall drink neither wine nor intoxicants, and no razor shall touch his head.”

As she continued praying before the Lord, Eli observed her mouth. Hannah was praying silently; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard; therefore Eli thought she was drunk. So Eli said to her, “How long will you make a drunken spectacle of yourself? Put away your wine.” But Hannah answered, “No, my lord, I am a woman deeply troubled; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the Lord. Do not regard your servant as a worthless woman, for I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation all this time.” Then Eli answered, “Go in peace; the God of Israel grant the petition you have made to him.” And she said, “Let your servant find favor in your sight.” Then the woman went to her quarters, ate and drank with her husband, and her countenance was sad no longer.

They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the Lord; then they went back to their house at Ramah. Elkanah knew his wife Hannah, and the Lord remembered her. In due time Hannah conceived and bore a son. She named him Samuel, for she said, “I have asked him of the Lord.”

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

PSALM 16:5-11

Peter HallockThe Psalm reading is sung by the choir

- 5 O Lord, you are my portion and my cup; *
it is you who uphold my lot.
- 6 My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; *
indeed, I have a goodly heritage.
- 7 I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel; *
my heart teaches me, night after night.
- 8 I have set the Lord always before me; *
because he is at my right hand I shall not fall.
- 9 My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; *
my body also shall rest in hope.
- 10 For you will not abandon me to the grave, *
nor let your holy one see the Pit.
- 11 You will show me the path of life; *
in your presence there is fullness of joy,
and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, “he sat down at the right hand of God,” and since then has been waiting “until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.” For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,

“This is the covenant that I will make with them
after those days, says the Lord:
I will put my laws in their hearts,
and I will write them on their minds,”

he also adds,

“I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.”

Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL	MARK 13:1-8
------------	-------------

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As Jesus came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!” Then Jesus asked him, “Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.”

When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?” Then Jesus began to say to them, “Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birthpangs.”

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Stewardship

It is so exciting!

We are well on our way to a record year of stewardship.....but we are not there yet!

Please, those of you who have yet to pledge, we need you!

Think of all we can do when we meet our goals.

Right now we are at 65% of our participation goal of 125 families. We are at 75% of our dollar goal of $300,000. To those of you who have pledged, you have been so incredibly generous. 38 of you have increased your pledge over last year. One of the most exciting stories, we have 14 new families who have pledged.

The future of Trinity is so vibrant; please consider making a pledge for 2022 so that we may be the bright light shining over Newport.

Ways to send us your pledge:

Mail it: Trinity Church, Queen Anne Sq, Newport, RI 02840

Call it in: 401-846-0660

Pledge online: www.TrinityNewport.org/pledgecard

Complete the card in your pew: the pledge card labeled: “The Gift is in the Giving” can be completed today and placed into the Offering Plate.

Adult Forum for Advent

Advent is quickly approaching – the first Sunday is November 28th.

Canon Tim and Deacon Christine will offer a book to discuss on Sunday mornings starting on Nov 28th, and then the next 3 Sundays, December on 5,12, & the 19th.

The book is called Names for the Messiah and has a chapter for each week in Advent. Talk with Canon Tim and Deacon Christine if you have questions. We hope you will join us!!

Books will be available for sale in today during coffee hour for $12/ea.

Women's Study

God is in the Manger: Reflections on Advent and Christmas

Women's study will be a daily meditation from Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a German Lutheran pastor and theologian and anti-Nazi dissident.

We will meet to discuss the meditations on Zoom and in-person at 6pm on Tuesday evenings in Hawes Hall. November 30, December 7, 14, 21.

Books will be available today during coffee hour for $13/ea

Please contact Deacon Christine or Cassandra Dias if you are interested in more information. ccassels@trinitynewport.org | cdias@trinitynewport.org

Capital Campaign

As the year ends, Trinity Church is within $50,000 of meeting our $1 Million 2021 Capital Campaign goal!

Parishioners George and Lisa Francisco have generously offered to match any Capital Campaign donation or pledge of $1,000 or more, up to $25,000, made before December 31st. Your year-end contribution can help us achieve our goal.

We hope that you will use this opportunity to double your gift to the capital campaign.

The project is important for the growth of Trinity.

- Improved space for a nursery and a vibrant Sunday School program will attract and support families with children.
- The upgraded kitchen space and equipment will enhance our ability to offer hospitality to parishioners and the community at large. It is especially important for the Community Meal Program which is an excellent example of what we believe in as a congregation.
- The new building's ADA accessible offices will allow members of our congregation easy access to Rev. Canon Tim Watt when support and guidance are needed.
- New choir space will enhance our thriving Trinity music program.

If you have questions or for more information contact Elaine Burress at projectmanager@trinitynewport.org

Pastoral Care Corner

Please remember in your prayers this week:

Lewis Smith, Jeanne Nassa, Anita Beaumont, George and Sandra V., Karen A., Jackie, Susan, Peter Chabot, Dennis, Betsy and Charlie Jauss, Sid Gorham, Todd, Fran, Zack, Roger King, Helen, Alex, Robert and Joyce Patterson, Eileen Schrader, Pearson, Donald Smith, Leonard Smith, Karen Nash, and in our Diocesan Cycle of Prayer, we join the Bishop today in praying for St. Elizabeth's, Hope Valley.

During the regular Wednesday Noon Eucharist, we remember in prayer the dear departed of this parish on the anniversary of their passing into eternal life. This week's Eucharist is offered with special intentions for the repose of the soul of A. Louise Watson, Florence Ursula Garniss, Nancy Elizabeth Neves, Herbert A. Lawton, Sr., Kathleen Ennis Jenkins, Dorothy Rice Long, and Virginia Sullivan.

Trinity Loving Care (TLC), is the Pastoral Care ministry of this parish. Reaching out with visits, meals, cards, and phone calls; and providing rides and errands, TLC extends the love of Christ to those in need. If you are aware of a need – for yourself or for someone else – please contact one of the TLC Monthly Coordinators.
