The Word of God

The people are seated for the Lessons and the Psalm.

FIRST LESSON

ACTS 2:42-47

Those who had been baptized devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

PSALM 23

Edward Bairstow

The Psalm is sung by the choir

- 1 The Lord is my shepherd; *
     I shall not be in want.
- 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures *
     and leads me beside still waters.
- 3 He revives my soul *
     and guides me along right pathways for his Name's sake.
- 4 Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
     I shall fear no evil; *
     for you are with me;
     your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
- 5 You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; *
     you have anointed my head with oil,
     and my cup is running over.
- 6 Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, * and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

It is a credit to you if, being aware of God, you endure pain while suffering unjustly. If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, what credit is that? But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God's approval. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps.

“He committed no sin,
and no deceit was found in his mouth.”

When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, free from sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

The people stand for the Gradual Hymn and for the reading of the Gospel.

THE GOSPEL

JOHN 10:1-10

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers." Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
---------------------------

Consoled by the knowledge that the Good Shepherd gives his life for us, let us pray for the needs of our community, our church, and our world, saying: Lord, have mercy.

The earliest Christian community held all things in common, and no one was in need. May we recommit ourselves to hold the goods of this world in common and to work to eliminate hunger and homelessness. For this let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Following the example of the shepherd who searched for the lost sheep, let us seek the lost in our community and welcome them in our midst. For this let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For our President, Joseph, and our Governor, Daniel, and for the leaders of all nations, that they may bring peace and justice to the world. For this let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For all who suffer in mind, body, or soul, for whom Christ is risen with healing in his glorious wings, especially Lewis Smith, Anita Beaumont, Betsy Jauss, Sid Gorham, Todd, Robert and Joyce Patterson, Eileen Schrader, Donald Smith, Leonard Smith, Judith and David Kobick, Susan Millis, Gerry Smith, Courtney, Hattie Porter, Dennis, Leah, Ann, Chris, Justine, Fran, Tim+, Cynthia Douglas, and in our Diocesan Cycle of Prayer, we join the Bishop today in praying for the Church of the Good Shepherd, Pawtucket, and those whom we now name either silently or aloud [allow time for people to add their own petitions], that they may be comforted. For this let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For all those who serve in the armed forces of this and every nation, particularly those deployed in harm's way. For this let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the church, especially Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury; Michael, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church; Nicholas, our Bishop; the clergy and staff of this parish; and all ministers of the Gospel. For this let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For all who have died and for all who grieve, especially Bill Watkinson, Michelle Anderson, Ginny Long, Susan Leary, Shirley Roos, and those that we name either silently or aloud [allow time for people to add their own petitions], that in Christ who triumphs over death they may find light perpetual and blessed assurance. For this let us pray to the Lord.
Lord, have mercy.

God, in you we live and move and have our being. You seek us before we know your name, and you give us joy in your life. Accept our prayer of joy in being found and forgiven and loved by you. We pray in the name of Christ your Son and in the joy of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Interested in Membership?*

Please join us for coffee on May 7th, following the 10:00 service

If you are new to Trinity and want to meet others who are also new, please join us for coffee on Sunday, May 7th. We will meet upstairs in Honyman Hall during the coffee hour that follows the 10:00 am service. We will have a few Vestry members and Newcomer Committee members joining us. If you joined us in March and wish to come again, we would love to have you!
We look forward to getting to know you.

Every home should have a Book of Common Prayer

After receiving a generous donation of new revised BCP's, we have a surplus of well-prayed prayer books that we want to offer to our parishioners. The Book of Common Prayer is steeped in Thanksgiving prayers, the history of the church, and the sacraments. If you don't have one at home, please take one from the tower room this weekend, it is a great resource to have on hand.

Also, if you know your family had a dedicated prayer book in a loved one's name, please speak with Deacon Christine and she will show you where the memorial books are so you may take it home.

Koinonia 2023

We began a wonderful tradition here at Trinity a few years ago and we would like to renew the tradition.

Koinonia (coin-oh-nee'-ah) is the Greek word for fellowship.

Members of the parish graciously host an event that provides the time for us to get together. It is a chance to get to know some of the people of Trinity with good food and conversation. It is also a wonderful opportunity to include friends that might be interested in coming to Trinity.

Would you be willing to host an event? You decide when, where, how many people, and all the details. If you have an interest in hosting an event or wish to learn more, please reach out to Geer Isdale, 401 935 0962 GeerIsdale@gmail.com

Keep an eye out for upcoming parties and join us!

Mary Street Parking Lot – Under Construction

The Mary Street Parking lot is currently being repaved and painted and will be closed until mid-to-late May. We know how much this will impact parking options on Sunday mornings, so please consider arriving early in order to obtain street parking. The Trinity parking lot will continue to be available for only those with mobility issues and staff.

We will send a notice once the Parking lot is open again for the 2023 season.
